PRESIDENT TUKULING
ACTION FOR BETTER
CONDITIONS IN U.S.

Roosevelt Holds Long Parley
With Gen. Johnson at the White House

OPINION BOYCOTT

More Liberal Credit and Rising
Prices Cheerful Signs in United States

(By Sam Robertson, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

New York, Sept. 7.—President Roosevelt appeared today to be gathering forces for the big push in his lower times drive.
Refreshed after a brief vacation on sea and on land, the vigorous U. S. president personally surveyed developments and factors of the National Recovery Act at a lengthy meeting with Gen. Hugh Johnson, who has his chief recovery administrator as John left the White House after a year's absence.
The president had decided here, more pressure, was needed to set recovery under full sail.

Lash of Whip
Coal operators and a big leaders' picketing and a bigger, more militant branch of the industry, were to feel the first lash of the Roosevelt whip. Johnson announced a code written by him would be handed the coal operators today. They would have until six p.m. Friday to file objections.

It also became known the NRA administration was laying plans for denouncing public opinion against employers to compel reemployment under the Blue Eagle, symbol of the recovery drive. Those directing the drive have shown impatience the past week at the slowness of accomplishment.

Recovery has reached official Washington that the number of employers displacing the Blue Eagle is far out of proportion with the number of new jobs believed to have been created.

Liberalize Credit
Steps toward liberalization of credit to industry continued under formation today. With money flowing more freely, thus removing a coin from business men, finances are adequate to permit financing in the drive, the administration would be in better position to insist recovery pledges be carried out to the utmost.

The American Bankers' Association announced from its annual convention in Chicago it was prepared to cooperate in the latter times drive by administering credit to industry within the limits of sound banking. Regardless, current belief was that the government-financed Federal Reconstruction Corporation will provide additional recovery stimulus by loans to business houses.

Prices Increase
Meanwhile, the momentum of the drive could be gauged in advancing wholesale prices and declining retail prices. The labor department announced during the week ended September 2 wholesale prices increased six-tenths of one per cent.
Six of the ten major groups of commodities showed gains. Other total statistics showed the number of families receiving unemployment relief in July was 26,607 less than in the June total.

Economic Ralph B. Wilson, vice-president of Babcock & Wilcox, was one with the prediction of a bright future for business and the belief that at least 70 per cent of United States industrial recovery is real.

There are four chances in seven that "business is heading into a substantial period of real prosperity which may last from two to five years after reaching the normal line; two chances in seven after reaching the normal line business will show a temporary peak lasting only one or two months; one chance in seven, some of the most experiments which are being tried may show up and cause the economy to topple."

One animal became so excited he dragged his mistress into the water with him when he took off.

LOCAL CHINESE IS GIVEN JAIL TERM

Ah Fu Sentenced To Six Months
On Charge Under Narcotic and Drug Act

By your own showing, you are guilty of giving opium to your possession, states Magistrate C. H. Beaver Potts in Police Court this morning. He then sentenced Ah Fu alias Ah Feng, Nanaimo Chinese, to six months in jail with hard labor, and fined him $300, with extra three months in default, for having opium in his possession contrary to the Opium and Narcotic Drugs Act. Fu pleaded not guilty.
The case was brought on the evening of Sept. 2nd by Sgt. J. Russell and Constable R. Hayward. Their search revealed a package containing three large decks and 33 small decks of opium in his sweater pocket, and another packet of nine small decks on the floor of the garage where he was arrested.
This was brought out in evidence by Constable Hayward and Sgt. Russell. The latter produced certificates from Mr. H. O. Thomas, Dominion analyst, stating that the decks contained opium.
As Fu, through an interpreter, said that he had bought the opium for his own use. When he went to the garage to hide it, there were too many people around to be had come back later and just as he was kneeling down to conceal the drug, the policeman came. He was taken to the station and obtained the habit of smoking. He had obtained the habit of smoking. He had obtained the habit of smoking.

LONG PARADE

Sir George Perley Flatly Denies
Charge of Negativity;
Blames Provinces

Ottawa, Sept. 7.—A party of 15 men and women representing 300 delegates to the National Conference of the unemployed is expected here, presenting a list of demanded reforms before the Dominion Government and demanding an immediate answer.
They were led by Sir George Perley, acting prime minister, so inmates aboard could be given but their presentations would be received by the cabinet.

"On the reply we get from this government today will depend the next course of action to be taken by this conference," declared James Houston, Toronto, one of the spokesmen. Immediately after the audience the delegation returned to their associates, lined up on Wellington street, and down the sidewalk facing Parliamentary Hill.

Half Hour Parade

The parade in front of the Parliament buildings lasted nearly half an hour and police keeping a close watch but not molesting the demonstrators, then the party marched away to their headquarters in the West End of the city.

Members for the Toronto, Montreal, for the T.M. Back, Toronto, radical union in Kingston, Ontario, for the Russian Soviet and the Young Communist Society, and singing of the 'Internationale' rang up and down the line as the delegates passed back and forth, 300 strong and two deep on the sidewalk to keep within the law against unauthorised parades.

The government was urged particularly to establish a system of non-convict probationary insurance insurance insurance to allow the delegates to trade the rods' back to their homes.

Alderman Heard

Alld. Reg. Morris, of East Windsor presented the main petition and declared the party represented more than 30,000 unemployed of which 15,000 were trade unionists. He was followed by H. Sherman, Hamilton, who spoke for the unorganized youth, and by Mrs. Hutton, of Vancouver, who spoke for the girls' club of that city.

Sir George Perley was accaginated by eight members of the cabinet. He was charged the government was guilty of criminal negligence in permitting conditions to reach their present state. It was declared thousands were starving even among the farming class.

Sir George denied most emphatically the government was guilty of negligence. "The greater part of our time has been devoted to dealing with this problem," he declared, "and we have done our best."

The problem was, by nature of the constitution, a matter for the provinces.

Other Factions Think That U. S. Should Intervene; Radicals Are Optimistic

ORDER REIGNS

Landing of American Forces May Lead To Guerrilla Warfare
Reports Indicate

(By J. P. McKnight)

Havana, Sept. 7.—Turbulent Cuba stood at the crossroads today, with some political factions convinced civil war would be necessary to solve the governmental problem, while others looked for intervention by the United States.

The radical administration which has set power continued on the situation to be optimistic Tuesday's coup d'etat would be successful.

Members of the Provincial Government declared order would be maintained and there would be no intervention by America. But all sections of the more conservative political groups considered intervention inevitable unless there was an abrupt change in the tense situation.

Civilians Disarm

In the face of this acute crisis the administration's five-man junta set up after soldiers, sailors and national police ousted commission officers and obtained the resignation of President De Cespedes' month-old provisional government — courageously tackled head-on its most dangerous problems.

It secretly resolved to disarm all civilians and began to try to restore to their positions officers ousted Saturday night and Tuesday morning.

Military units at Camp Columbia, origin of the movement for a "purely revolutionary government," at San Ambrosio barracks, and at Danquay were reported divided on the course of events.

The commission met a long time last night. When the session ended at 1:05 a.m., they announced complete order resigned through the night. Ramon Grau San Martin, Junta member, said the long-closed University of Havana would be reopened October 1.

Rumors circulated freely all revolutionary factions—opponents of the General Machado regime, which toppled Aug. 12 and gave way to the short-lived De Cespedes regime—were in a state of intense agitation.

Sailors Do Not Land

Sailors of the United States destroyer "Surveillant" was lying by at Santiago, where strikers, reportedly inspired by Communists, continued to demand that the sergeant broadcast a threat to fire on marines if they attempted to intervene. Several students issued like statements.

Junta members and others said in American-issued statements that the commission's promises of intervention came from the interwar years. President Roosevelt had them instructed to report to Admiral Charles F. Phipps on the cruiser Richmond, docked in Havana waters.

Four coast-guard cutters were ordered to Cuba yesterday from southern waters.

London, Sept. 7.—The Cuban disturbances are causing considerable anxiety in Great Britain regarding possibility of damage to foreign property. Thus far the Foreign Office has received no reports of damage.

TEMBLOR REPORTED

Washington, Sept. 7.—An earthquake of 5.2 magnitude, duration starting at 5:27 p.m. yesterday, was reported today by the seismological laboratories of Georgetown University.

LORD GREY DIES; STATESMAN HAD BEEN ILL WEEK

Former Secretary of Foreign Affairs
Plied England Through Early Days of War

WAS 71

Ex-Premier Lloyd George Is Distracted at Death of One
He Once Attacked

Christian Bank, Eng., Sept. 7.—Viscount Grey of Faldbon, former Secretary for Foreign Affairs and one-time British ambassador to Washington, died today at the age of 71.

The veteran statesman had been ill more than a week from malaria; the exact nature of which was not disclosed, but was thought to have resulted from high blood pressure.

Death came at 6:45 a.m. The vicar died at 11:30 a.m. on Monday, died today at the age of 71.

The veteran statesman had been ill more than a week from malaria; the exact nature of which was not disclosed, but was thought to have resulted from high blood pressure.

Through all the tense years, fraught with crisis, that preceded the British declaration of war in 1914, Sir Edward was undisturbed, but not untroubled; he had the mighty force of British public opinion behind him as few men have had, and he reached his decisions with calm clear strength that commanded the world's respect.

Loved Peace

An ardent lover of peace, he was driven to lead Great Britain and the Empire into war.

Born in 1862, son of a soldier and grandson of a distinguished statesman, Grey at one time seemed destined to live the life of a country gentleman. In 1882 he succeeded to his grandfather's baronetcy and from 1885 to 1915 he represented the Warwick-Tweed division in the House of Commons. He was foreign under-secretary from 1892 to 1895. In December, 1905, he became Foreign Secretary in the new Liberal Cabinet of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

Six years before the Great War Sir Edward fully realized the menace to European peace from the Central Powers.

Haldane's Mission

Great Britain had made allies of France and Russia; she was willing to be friendly with Germany, the Foreign Secretary said. But she could not be friendly with the world's respect.

During the seven months, January-July of this year, births registered in the same cities totalled 48,155, deaths 27,418 and marriages 15,735 as against 50,271 births, 28,509 deaths and 16,133 marriages during the corresponding period last year. This comparison shows decrease of five per cent in births, four per cent in deaths and 25 per cent in marriages.

THE RIGHT TO VOTE
The provincial elections are approaching. All British subjects over the age of 21 years who have resided in this country six months, and who are on the voters' list are entitled to a ballot.

There is considerable criticism of governments and parties these days. The vote is the weapon of reform. It is as a voter you have a right, and fail to exercise it is a serious constitutional offence to you, then as a citizen, you have no one to blame but yourself for the condition in which the province finds itself.

The last Court of revision sits on Sept. 18. It is a plain civic duty to see that you get your name placed upon the voters list, for unless there is a representative vote, the candidate elected cannot be said to be truly representative of the people.

There are so many in the field that it is probable that there will be a record number of ballots cast. But do not leave it at that. Do not throw your responsibility upon the shoulders of others.

The people, peculiarly enough, will fight for the franchise, and when they obtain it are often careless of the privilege.

See that you are entitled to vote. And then exercise that right in the interests of good government, as you see it. Under present conditions this is your bounden duty.

BACKERS OF CRIME

A witness before the United States Senate committee on racketeering... The amazing thing about the statement is that any remarks so obvious would have had to be made in a congressional committee. Yet it is true that in the United States the machine gun has not yet been removed for public use.

CANADA AND SWASTIKA

If there is one cry, Canada can afford to be heard on the subject of new political parties. For this reason we can see no occasion for importing Fascism from Great Britain, even under the fancy name of a Swastika League of the Empire.

Fascism has already been attempted in the Dominion but the soil does not appear any more congenial to its growth than that of Great Britain, unless the financial support of the Standard Symphony Orchestra keeps it in being.

The fact is that the peoples of Great Britain and the self-governing dominions have not been learning the lesson of the business of centuries to do as they please to a dictator at this time of day.

Russia, which never had real democracy, may need a Stalin. Italy which is the merest noveau among nationalistic institutions, may have before it a Mussolini. Germany, which had long been accustomed to the iron heel of a military autocracy, may cheerfully accept the slavery imposed by Hitler.

The British people, however, are still as stubborn as Caesar found them. They are not in the least likely to bend their necks to yokes invented by Sir Oswald Mosley or anybody else.

When only they consent to a system of government the symbol of which is a bundle of sticks—sticks to be applied to their own backs—Vancouver Sun.

A LITTLE MORE CARE

More people are killed and injured by automobiles in Canada and the United States than by any other vehicle, machine or device ever invented by man, according to statistics.

Seven major sins, the authorities say, are responsible for the majority of motorists. These are: 1. Motorists fail to keep to their own side of the road.

2. They fail to signal before turning. 3. They fail to watch for 'jay-walkers.'

4. They try to pass cars without allowing proper clearance. 5. They fail to check faulty brakes. 6. They get too close to cars ahead on hills.

7. They try to pass moving cars on the right (that is to say, the wrong side). And, of course, the sins of the pedestrians are numerous, too, but they may be conveniently summed up in that they will continue to 'jay-walk.'

Going over the weekly sins of the motorists, the thought occurs that in many cases their commission is not so much the result of lack of care on the part of the motorist as of his desire to get ahead of the traffic, to lose no time in arriving at nowhere in particular.

RELATIONS TALKS BETWEEN MEMBERS OF COMMONWEALTH

First Conference at Toronto This Month Expects to Produce Important Results
BORDEN, PRESIDENT
Will Consider Changes in System of Communication Between Various Dominions

Toronto, Sept. 7.—Adequacy and possible improvement of the existing system of communication, consultation and action between the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations will be considered at the sessions of the first British Commonwealth relations conference in Hart House, University of Toronto, Sept. 11. While the conference will be unofficial in a sense, its deliberations may produce important results in opinion in every section of the British Empire.

Representatives of different shades of political opinion, also men who have had experience in the practical working of the constitution and of the foreign policy of the British Commonwealth of Nations and students of experts in such matters will attend from Great Britain, each of the Dominions and from India. For example, Viscount Cecil of Chelwood, Sir Herbert Samuel, D. B. Somerville and N. S. Baker, will be members of the British delegation.

Preparatory work has been similarly undertaken in Australia by the Australian Institute of International Affairs, and by individuals and ex-

Issues Discussed
The conference will not pass resolutions since its aims are in accord with those of the institutes of international affairs, namely, to advance the science and study of international politics. The institutes as such may not express an opinion on any aspect of such questions.

Invitations for the conference were issued by the Canadian Institute of International Affairs with whom the idea of such a gathering emanated. The object of the conference is to provide for: 1. A survey of the existing system of communication, consultation and action between the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

2. Consideration of the adequacy of the existing constitution of the British Commonwealth of Nations and its problems, and all other relevant circumstances. 3. Consideration of specific suggestions for its improvement.

The idea of holding the conference was put forward as long ago as 1929 when it was suggested at the meeting of the Institute of Pacific Relations held in Kyoto, and it was again discussed at the meeting that Institute in Shanghai in 1931. The suggestion was considered by the Executive Council of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs in January, 1931, when it was decided to invite such a conference to be held in Canada.

Sir Robert's Position
The Honorary President of the Canadian Institute is former Premier Sir Robert Borden, and the President is Hon. Newton W. Rowell, who has been instrumental in promoting the conference in collaboration with the Royal Institute of International Affairs, London. A small preliminary meeting was held in London in July, 1932 attended by representatives of the R. I. I. A. and the C. I. I. A. and persons from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and the Irish Free State.

This committee drew up a draft agenda and in the intervening year a large body of preparatory material has been written by carefully selected groups representative of different shades of political opinion in each country.

In the United Kingdom this preliminary work has been organized by the Royal Institute International Affairs and in Canada study groups were established among the members of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs in various cities in which

We 'Point With Pride' To Our Labor Day Success—Jimmy McLarin Here Saturday—Nanaimo's Soccer Club—

By B. B.

Nanaimo has just celebrated Labor Day in fitting style. Hundreds of her residents, and many visitors, thronged at the Sports Grounds to see the pick of provincial athletes compete in the Vancouver Island Track and Field Meet events. Such a meet will never again be held. Earliest history carries records of foot races and other competitive sports. Post No. 3, the Nanaimo branch of the Native Sons of B. C., is to be congratulated for the wonderful manner in which they have again brought this sport to the fore in Nanaimo.

Not a murmur of criticism was heard during the afternoon. Fans and athletes were pleased with the business-like manner in which the program was carried out. Guest competitors, including Olympic stars, who have participated at some of the finest meets on the continent, found everything to their liking. Registrars and judges did their work well. The starter, Phil Piper, was congratulated for his keen knowledge of his difficult position and will be invited to fulfill the same duties at other meets in Vancouver and Victoria.

The public address system kept everyone acquainted with each event, its winners and their times or distances. Guest stars were introduced by this method, and during the pole vault and high jump events, the announcer gave the height of the bar every time it was raised a notch.

It is to be sincerely hoped that Nanaimo people will realize the benefits this town is reaping through such a meet—not through new business but through the athletic achieved. Every public-spirited citizen should back the Native Sons in any future efforts of this kind.

The star of the meet was the graceful, flame-haired Nanaimo athlete, Mary Thompson. She accomplished no slight achievement by defeating the Canadian champion, Miss Margaret Bell, with a jump of almost five feet. This makes her a potential contender for Miss Bell's laurels, and great honors are expected of her in future meets. Only two women in the Dominion have a better mark than their credit. One is Miss Bell, the present record holder, and Miss Eva Davies, the dejected one.

The Nanaimo-born sprint star, Mary Fritzel, proved that she is still outstanding in the shorter races. She appears to be at top form now, and seems to be able to eclipse Liam Palmer her Olympic time mate.

Fans are still marvelling over the wonderful finish of the mixed relay. The competitors in the first three laps ran true to form, but their wonderful efforts faded in the race between Mary Fritzel and Harold Wright. Mary started out with about ten yards advantage, but Wright caught her just at the tape, and a dead heat resulted. Pete Malton may have wished for such an ending, but it is doubtful whether he expressed it.

The Gator, always on deck with some novel method to raise funds for the playgrounds or some other needy cause, have found a drawing card which will sell worth the price of admission, wherever it may be. This is James Archibald 'Jimmy' McLarin, the smiling Irishman who holds the world welterweight boxing title. Jimmy will retrace the main boat route between the Gator and Harbord at the Pagan Arena Saturday, and may even treat the ramp to a shadow boxing exhibition.

The boats will bring to gether a number of outstanding professional leather punchers, Jackie Patterson and Phil Trueman will mingle in the feature event.

The Nanaimo football team will not be seen in competition against the Royals, Tigers and Saints this year. They are back in the fold and will have as opponents such teams as the Argyle, North Shore and (perhaps this is the reason why they joined up with the new loop) Cowan Dodsons. Two other elevens will be added, and these last aggregations will be in action this year. The local squad will be the veterans at the game, and are expected to set the pace for the youngsters to follow. With a six-team league, games are assured here more often than in the past season. The new deal brings Nanaimo back to organized soccer and the Great Experiment is marked as a failure.

In about three weeks, the baseball pennant races will be over and the American and National League winners will meet in the world series. Two young playing managers, in their first full season at such a position, seem to be guiding their teams 'to the elastic and the day of the veteran seem to be fading. Terry has made deals and changes that alarmed the Giant followers, but none have been to his disadvantage and his team, which was given a last place rating by many prominent writers, is still waiting along in front of a page.

Youth must be served, and they are rapidly changing the order of things in the great national pastime. But there are still some wonderful veterans who will not concede their position to the young men for a few years yet.

TOURISTS TO PLAY NANAIMO, FRIDAY

City Nine and Chemainus Unite To Oppose Ellenburg In Two Games

Nanaimo and Chemainus baseball players have teamed up to form a touring nine to meet the Ellenburg Cowboys in an exhibition game here tomorrow afternoon at the Central Sports Grounds. The touring eleven bring back to the Island fans most of the members of last year's squad, and hope for no better contests than the local team gave them on their 1932 tour, when they were held to a scoreless draw and 2-0 win.

The Cowboys have lost only three league games this season and have a 2-1 in fast company. Coach Leo Nicholson announces the following lineup: Catchers, Reed and Pfond; pitchers, Leo Fittreer, Vic Krause and Gus Saunders; first base, Another; second base, Iude Dundry; third base, Mel Lee; short stop, Don Connors; outfielders, Jack Connors, Gordon Tour and Coach Nicholson. Bob Wiley was unable to make the trip, but he will be on the mound for the locals with Pete Wiley doing the receiving, Edmunds, Watchorn, Lapsansky and a young Japanese, Okomaru, will form the infield, with Oots Robinson, Horton, Carr and Naylor slated to look after the gardens.

Friday's game will be followed up with a return tilt on Saturday. The tourists are playing in Alberni today and should be on-top shape when they arrive for their match here tomorrow.

Taylor To Guide Hoop Destinies of Victorians

Victoria, Sept. 7.—For the fifth successive year, Jack Taylor will guide the affairs of the Victoria and District Basketball League. Last night at the annual meeting held at the Y.M.C.A., Taylor was returned as president for another term by acclamation, while Bill Erickson was put back as secretary-treasurer and Bob Whyte as vice-president. Frank Shandley and Alex Childie were again placed on the executive committee, while Ernie Cook will be the new member. Les Gordon was made Vancouver Island delegate, and Tommy Forbes chosen as representative to the British Columbia Association. The meeting was well attended.

Gehrig and Hafey In Ball's Big Six

Baseball's Big Six had two new members today to replace Al Simmons and Wes Schulmerich. Lou Gehrig, with three hits in four times at bat yesterday, replaced Simmons in the American League's hall of the jacks, while Chuck Hafey, who competed with five hits in two games, ousted Schulmerich from the National League trio. Gehrig's slugging left him with an average of .331, one point higher than Simmons. Hafey, with a gain of five points, boosted his average to .327.

NEW SOCCER LOOP OF FOUR ELEVENS TO FUNCTION SOON

Six Team League Planned To Play at Jones Park in Vancouver NO NAME CHOSEN

Vancouver, Sept. 7.—Out of the tangled heart of Vancouver soccer there arose a new league to occupy the attentions of the football followers when it was announced by Bob Forge at the V. and D. League meeting last night that Nanaimo City, North Shore United, Cowan-Dodson and Rentreue Argyle had banded together to form a loop.

The new league will play at Con Jones Park having already made arrangements with the park owners to play there for the season. The loop will probably comprise six teams with two more to be chosen from the applications that have been sent in.

Nanaimo Leaves 'Em

That the Pacific Coast League will have to function without the services of Nanaimo City and North Shore United which it was planning on taking into the Coast group. The Coast-ers will also have to make arrangements for a park other than that of Jones and the only enclosed one left in Vancouver is Athletic Park.

The new league has not as yet adopted a name but will form the final plans for the running of the organization this week.

Teams already in the group promised members of the Vancouver and District organization full co-operation in the matter of cup-ties. The V. and D. will probably make application for the use of the park when not being used by the other league.

Night Games Featured

It is planned by the new-born loop to play night games at Jones Park and also the regular Saturday afternoon fixtures.

The organization meeting of the V. and D. was adjourned until the new senior loop could finish its organization. Teams in the V. and D. senior league are Art Monument, Chemainus, Varsity, North Shore, Macchobes, Westminster, City and Regents pro tem.

In the second division are Young Loblaws, Vikings, Regals, Johnson's National Storage, Terminal-Cartage,

MISSION SHIP NOW AT TRINIDAD

East Coast Mission Ship Is Expected in Vancouver by October 15

Port of Spain, Trinidad, Sept. 7.—Rev. John Anfle, the "sailor parson," has arrived here en route to British Columbia from England, after an adventurous crossing of the Atlantic Ocean in his 36-ton "mission" yacht, the John Anfle, formerly owned by Greek millionaires.

"Skipper John," as he is known by his crew of six, told a story of motor trouble, food and water shortage, while making the trip, during which they were forced to put in at Curacao for repairs to their motor-powered yacht, because of propeller trouble.

The sailing missionary, superintendent of the British Columbia Coast Medical Mission, expects to reach Vancouver about October 15 to carry on his work among the coastal Indians, lumberjacks and miners.

Consolation Series Starts This Evening

The initial game between Dodo Kids and Northfield Wideawakes for the Walls & Bradshaw Consolation Cup will be played at Comox Park this evening commencing at 5:15. The Northfield team have lost several of their star players, and the Kids will be out in full strength to garner the points in the opening game.

"Mush" Aitken will control the game with the assistance of Paul Courtenay on the bases.

Sons of Norway, South Hill Merchants and Collingwood Marpole Athletic is making application for a third division berth if any third division is formed.

Opena September 23

Opening of the season was set at Sept. 23 and Verne Whitworth was appointed secretary of the league. His position will be ratified at the meeting of the Lower Mainland Football Association Wednesday night. Directly following that meeting the V. and D. will again meet to consider the allocation of teams forming the various divisions and will elect the rest of their officers.

The new senior league will seek affiliation with the B. C. F. A. at the annual meeting Saturday night.

TEA RESTRICTION

In April a restriction was placed on tea exports from Ceylon, India, and Java, in order to raise prices to growers, who, for almost four years, had been suffering devastating losses. Higher prices have resulted, not only in the gardens, but also here on our open markets, and many package teas already cost more than they did six months ago. Some of the finer quality brands are as yet unchanged, however, and are, consequently, even better value than at last April.

not remain unperturbed while Germany had "the biggest army in the world and was methodically seeking to build the biggest navy. In 1912 he was one of those responsible for the famous platoon of Lord Haldane to Berlin, but the German Government would be satisfied with nothing less than a flat declaration of British neutrality in the event of war by the Allies. Sir Edward naturally refused, and proceeded to further strengthen the understanding with France.

But Sir Edward remained calmly judicial, and when the Balkans were in uproar in 1912 and 1913 he was still able to work in harmony with Germany in reaching a settlement. He was consequently gravely troubled at the unyielding attitude of Germany in the negotiations arising from the Austro-Serbian dispute; when Austria delivered her ultimatum, July 23, 1914, he saw at once the dimensions of the catastrophe that loomed. With Russia, he besought an extension of time, Austria and Germany refused. He proposed England, France, Germany and Italy arbitrate the dispute; but the German war plans were out of their pigeon holes and when he suggested that they go as far as possible towards meeting the Austrian demands Austria under her German masters set full submission as the cost and impatiently declared war on expiration of the time limit. Germany's declaration followed, a Grey proposal of a conference of ambassadors proving abortive.

Suffered From Eyes

The emergence of Lloyd George thrust Grey into the background as liberal party leader and for many years Viscount Grey was leader of an attenuated "Asquithian" section. In late years, Viscount Grey was rarely in the public eye, confining himself to comments on international news of the day. His eyes gave him continual trouble; some years ago he fortified himself against the worst by learning to read Braille.

In 1906 Lord Grey's life was shadowed by the death of his first wife in a driving accident. Sixteen years later in June, 1922, he was married very quietly, in the Church of Winstead, close to Stonehenge on Salisbury Plain, to Lady Glenconner. The Lord Glenconner is a brother of Mrs. Asquith, had been one of Lord Grey's intimate friends.

Bangor, Wales, Sept. 7.—David Lloyd George, whose memoirs, published by confidence on the eye of Viscount's Grey's death, contained a sharp attack on the former secretary for Foreign Affairs, in connection with the outbreak of the war, was obviously distressed today when informed of the passing of his one-time colleague.

With a voice full of emotion the former prime minister and secretary of war said:

"It is sad to be told of the death of an old colleague. We had our disagreements in opinion and he and I gave free expression to them. That is inevitable in politics, especially in the life of a long life. But I have nothing new but grief at the death of one whom I worked so many years in complete personal harmony."

Lloyd George in the first volume of his War Memoirs said millions killed in the war were need not have met death if the conflict should have ended in 1916 and the Allied strategy in France in the earlier stages was a "sanguinary mistake."

"An ideal foreign secretary would be a cross between a resident and a tramp, for instance between Sir Edward Grey and Ramsay MacDonald," Lloyd George wrote.

London, Sept. 7.—Tributes to the life and achievements of Viscount Grey of Faldoon began pouring in today from all quarters—his former political colleagues, statesmen, and various other persons prominent in all walks of life when news of the death of the former Secretary for Foreign Affairs spread.

Annual Garden Party of Bastion
Chapter Is Successful
Event, Wednesday

Bastion Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its annual garden party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, Sea View Heights, Wednesday afternoon. The fête proved most successful. Weather doubtful, weather persuaded the various committees to move some of the attractions indoors, the visitors enjoyed the lovely grounds to the fullest extent.

The event was declared open by Mrs. C. Sampson, provincial president. She preceeded the ceremony with a brief but interesting speech in which she stressed the importance of the forthcoming semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter, to be held in Nanaimo, October 17 and 18, under the auspices of Bastion and Malaspina Chapters.

Little Jean Hunt, daughter of the hostess, presented Mrs. Sampson with a bouquet of flowers, on behalf of the Chapter members.

The guests were received by Mrs. C. H. Barker, Regent, assisted by Mrs. Hunt.

Tea was served from a prettily appointed table, centered with a deep blue Auburn crystal rose bowl, holding pastured tinted rose buds, which vied delightfully with Autumn flowers, served in the general decorative scheme. Arranged at vantage points, on a sheer linen cloth of intricate embroidery, were tall elegant candle holders supporting vivid green plants. Presiding at the tea were Mrs. T. J. Spencer, Mrs. J. J. Scales, Mrs. J. E. Dykes-Partington.

The winners of the drawing which was held, are Miss Lida Dawkins, with ticket number 73 and Miss Axiam with ticket number 99. Little Adria Michelen drew the tickets.

Convener of the tea, committee was Miss Doheson, ably assisted by Mrs. W. W. Lewis, Mrs. V. Fawcett, Mrs. A. Munroe, Mrs. T. P. Morton, Mrs. Campbell Dow and Miss Hogarth.

The 7th I.O.D.E. Girl Guides, with Miss Ruth Foster, captain, had charge of the candy stall.

Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Roy ably conveyed the house-joint attraction, while Mrs. P. J. Johnston and Mrs. Coester read fortunes from tea-leaves. In charge of a well-organized home cooking stall were Mrs. W. F. Drysdale and Mrs. S. Votkive.

Mrs. Paul Michelen was chairman of the decoration committee, and arranged the flowers that were presented to the guest of honor. Mrs. Wetton was convener of the drawing.

Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Gordon Smith, vice-provincial officers, were also present.

Talented children under the direction of Mrs. Madge Grey, provided an interesting program. Those taking part were Wynona Hunter, Betty Szegez, a group of character dancers, and Gwendolyn Pashley. Mrs. E. Mallin proved a talented accompanist.

British Destroyers Ordered To Red Sea

Alexandria, Egypt, Sept. 7.—The destroyers H.M.S. Duncan, Diamond and Delight left here suddenly today supposedly for the Red Sea.

It was believed a toils situation has arisen in the neighborhood of the Red Sea where King Ibn Saud of Arabia was said to be making preparations for a possible outbreak of hostilities with Imam Yahya of the Yemen, a state in southwest Arabia. Difficulties apparently have arisen over frontier lines between the two countries.

London, Sept. 7.—It was learned today three British destroyers which left Alexandria, Egypt, today were bound for Aden, seaport and British protectorate in southwest Arabia. Their trip was described as merely a continuation of Mediterranean cruise.
