The Minister, Nov. 4.—Milo Reno the director of the National Farmers' Holiday Association farm strike, today visited the 21 state leaders of his organization to be proposed to "throw down" Roosevelt's retail holiday device for cost of production prices on farm products. The demands were presented to the president by five midwestern governors today.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Five mid-western governors, stirred by new reports of farm unrest in their states, today called upon President Roosevelt to put into effect his plan to fix prices on a drastic program of price-fixing and rigid discipline in the marketing of agricultural products.

The governors asserted their purpose was to request the President to overrule his farm advisers and employ their method of achieving quick success in farm prices.

Their new program included modifications aimed to meet objections by farm officials. As refracted it provides: Raising prices of beef, cattle, hogs, wheat, milk and butterfat at parity.

EAGLES TO BUILD SPACIOUS LODGE ROOM TO BE FEATURE OF Aerie's HOME

LOCAL LABOR

Spacious Lodge Room To Be Feature of Aerie's Home

In spite of the depression in the coal business, faith in the future of the city of Nanaimo has been shown by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 15, who last night decided to construct a reinforced concrete three-story building upon their property at the corner of Bastion and Skinner streets. The structure, which will be modern in every respect, will be erected on a frontage of 265 feet on Bastion St. and 74 feet in Skinner St. sketch plans show.

The property which has been owned by the Aerie for some time, covers 1/2 acre and 60x112 feet. "We shall do our utmost to provide work on this building for our members, and after that for the people of Nanaimo," said an official of the Eagles, to the Free Press today.

Plans show that the seven foot drop from the front to the rear of the property will be utilized as a basement, containing a buffet and billiard room. On the ground floor with an entrance on Bastion St., there will be four stories or offices, divided with an entrance to the Aerie. These offices will have a depth 24 feet, and ample room is allowed behind them for a lounge with a fireplace for members. Comfortable ladies' quarters will also be provided on this floor.

A spacious lodge room, 36x52, will take the major portion of the upper story. An assembly room, committee room, and kitchen will also be placed on this floor.

Walker did his best all evening to catch up with the shifty Rosenberg, but outside of a couple of good shots in the first two rounds, a slashing blow that cut the champion's cheek in the eighth and a solid body smash in the eleventh, he got nowhere. His best was just to charge ahead in occasional rallies, while Rosenberg danced around him, flicking in blows whenever he felt like it.

THE ELECTION'S WARNING

One thing emerges now that the smoke of political battle has cleared away—and that is the significance of the exceptional vote polled in favor of C. C. F. candidates.

The C. C. F. as an organization in this province is comparatively new. As a B. C. political party it is not more than six months old. True it is that Dr. Telford and Mr. Pritchard have stamped the province, talking of the affairs of the day, as if they have interpreted them, for the past year or so, but that was only a certain amount of spade work, preparing the people for the platform which was to follow.

We say this vote is significant, because it shows that there are a number of our people ready to embrace the tenets of Socialism, and that number is increasing. Primarily of course this is due to the fact that many have felt that the last government did little to materially lessen the unemployment situation, and that many are unsympathetic towards party government.

To offset this leftist tendency of the electorate, the Liberal party will have to do much in a short period of time. The C. C. F. adherent will of course, tell you that under the present system that this cannot be done. But it is only fair to give them the opportunity. With the majority they have, the people can be assured that they will do all in their power to lessen taxation, relieve municipal liabilities of the excessive burdens under which they now labor, and distribute a greater measure of employment.

"They Say"— Opinions of the Men of Affairs of the World.

A casual visitor to New York, looking over its expanse and taking note of its magnificent buildings and its teeming population, may well wonder how such neglect and such general unconcern for the public welfare have been possible.

It is well-established custom that when such things happen the politicians are to blame. Those who are really to blame, however, are not so much the politicians as the people, for the politicians will quickly do whatever the people compel them to do. They are not restrained by any fixed convictions or principles of any sort or kind. Interest, personal interest, is the only motive which they understand or to which they will respond.

There is an old notion that good government can be promoted in some mysterious fashion merely by displacing one set of office-holders and office-seekers for another set of office-holders and office-seekers. It cannot be so promoted. It can only be advanced and made sure by the vigorous and clear-sighted application of definite principles, and by the endeavor to show those principles to be abandoned or betrayed by any man or by any group.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON GIVEN

Story of How the Church At Antioch Received Advice From Jerusalem

Lesson Text: Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty—2 Corinthians 3:17.

Acts 15: 1, 2. 1. And certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2. When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissensions and disputations with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about the question.

Acts 15:22-31. 22. Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas and Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23. And they wrote letters by them after this manner: The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24. Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment.

25. It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul.

26. Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

29. That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30. So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31. Which when they had read, they rejoiced for consolation.

Weekly Notes of Jehovah's Witnesses

Now that the election is over, anything that we may say here cannot in any way affect the result. We have been asked many times during the last month "Would it be right for a man to take part in the election, or to vote for any party?" and to this we wish to say positively, No. A true Christian takes the Bible for his guide in all matters, he believes that the Bible was specially written for his generation, and that it contains the words of God created the first human pair perfect, and told them to multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it (Genesis 1:29). Before granting his pair the right to live on earth forever, Jehovah placed on them a trial (Gen. 2:16, 17). He placed Lucifer, a mighty spirit creature to watch over this pair. Lucifer allowed pride to get control of him (Isaiah 14:12-15). He desired to have a kingdom of his own, and by fraud, deception and lying, he got control of this perfect pair, caused them to lose their right to live on the earth for ever (Genesis 3:5). Since that time he has been the invisible ruler of the world, filling the world with sorrow, sickness, suffering and death.

All down through the Old Testament Jehovah caused His faithful prophets to tell of a time coming when he would destroy this mighty creature Satan, and the kingdom he had set up. The Old Testament further discloses the fact another mighty creature would be used for this purpose, and that that one would be his son Jesus. When Jesus reached the age of 33 years, He laid down His perfect human life as the purchase price to purchase Adam and all his children, out of death.

Jesus never attempted to tell Pilate the Roman governor, how he should rule the country.

During the last 1900 years Jehovah God has been extending a call to certain individuals to follow in the footsteps of Jesus in proclaiming the message of the Kingdom. Every one who has heard and accepted this call has been begotten of God's Holy Spirit, and although they are still living in a body of flesh, and both just the same as others, nevertheless God now treats them as spiritual. Paul says they are New Creatures in Christ Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:17) and in the 20th verse of the same chapter Paul says that these New Creatures become ambassadors for Christ. Their duty as such is to look after the interests of Christ and His Kingdom.

No ambassador has the right to interfere with the domestic politics of the country where he resides. Thus we see that no true Christian has the right to interfere with politics.

The Bible shows, as well as the physical facts, that 1914 marked the time when Christ would begin to exercise His authority as King, and commence the destruction of Satan and his rulership. We have now reached the greatest crisis in all history and no matter which party gets into power they cannot avoid this crisis.

I quote a few of the scriptures here which show that soon every man is going down in the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known. Psalm 2:9; Daniel 2:44; Jeremiah 25:33-34; Matthew 24:21-22.

The date of every true Christian is to warn others of this great trouble, to a failure to do so would mean their everlasting destruction (Ezekiel 3:17-19).

EXILES OF PARIS ROOM IN "PORT OF SLEEPLESS MEN"

Study in Human Distress Are Wanderers of Parisian Quays;
Exiled Aristocrats

LIFE SUSPENDED

Paris, Nov. 4.—Human distress at its worst is to be found in the most romantic half-mile of Europe, along the bridges of Paris from the Pont des Arts, past the Pont Neuf and the Ile de la Cité, to the St. Louis.

At night when shadows emerge from shadows, old couples appear from no one knows where, going hand in hand and disappearing again into the shadows of the Pont Neuf.

Between 11 o'clock and midnight the others come, the sleepless ones. They too, are without a goal, without a home, but there is this difference: these are the aristocrats of disaster, the exiles, the banished, those who without ever leaving are without a country too.

They are drawn mostly from the colony of 10,000 white Russians in Paris. Their distress has its own geography in the City of Light. They do not sleep with the poor, they do not sleep with the destitute.

In the daytime they can be seen in the garden of the Palais Royal. This one looked down upon by the famous Odeon Club, hemmed in by the known restaurants, old haunts of kings and dukes, gardeners and gamblers, savors of the epicure. They sit there the space of a gentleman's leisure. Then they walk.

There are those among them who have walked three days and three nights, jostling shoulders with the pleasure-seekers of Paris, from whom there is nothing to distinguish them except their eyes. Restless eyes.

There comes a moment when they go on to collapse. It is at such moments that these men seek what the Parisians have chosen to nickname, "The Port of Sleepless Men."

It is well placed, this port, into which the convulsions of the world has swept the human wreckage of drunks. Above in the silence of midnight the light of the yellow lamps glows up the outlines of Notre Dame and the Palais de Justice.

The towering immensity above is matched by the moving immensity beneath. The Seine at this point gathers light to elucidate its pythonic-like motion.

The sea swell of the quay is steep abrupt, black like an escarpment of the infinite. Steps lead from the quay above to the wharf below. There is something terribly distinguished about the half dead with sleep as they descend these steps.

That strange half-light, the grandiose surroundings the spirit of the place emphasize some remote obstinacy in their bearing, some secret element of aristocracy, brought out in the struggle of an unchangeable destiny, something solid like a principle and material like an instinct.

From the wharf the great arch of the bridge greets the autumn rain. The bend of the wall at the Pont Neuf checks the wind. Enough scraps of mud and caulking of disused boats to show to keep the fire going all night. At times the wind catches the flame of the wood fire and tortures and twists it into a flare. The lines of a head, the turn of a shoulder, the shof of a hand reveal here a famous general, there a renowned musician of a celebrated avante.

Strafford comes here, the Russian composer, Fedorov, Milinkoff, champagne. There, are among them exiled barons, Spanish grandees, aristocrats for whom the world has no longer any use.

They sit these exiles of destiny, and stare as if trying to pierce a profound and fatalistic enigma; they stare like men who have lost the belief of their lives; their voices are low, as if they feared to awake the city asleep above their heads.

Beyond the long lights of Paris reflect themselves in the waters like endless illusions. Here and there one of the men falls suddenly over, asleep with that profound sleep in which all life seems suspended.

And in the morning they fade away like ghosts. All that remains are the charred ashes of a workman's fire.

MOSQUITO TAKE SENIOR FIXTURE; MALASPINAS WIN

Interesting Hoop Fixtures Seen

KEEN GAMES

Another entertaining evening was provided at the gymnasium last night by four senior league teams, two girls' teams, and two intermediate case squads. Every game was a personal battle, with the referee handling the team with precision. Four players were banished for personal during the matches.

Sporting Dakin's, Southend quintette 30 points, the smooth working Mosquito A's captured their senior league fixture last evening by a 58-35 score. The A's took a berth with the senior players, who number among their players many men just starting out in basketball, because there was no other league for them to enter.

Holt, lanky forward, was the king pin of the Mosquito attack and captured half of their points. Naylor, Robinson, Wardell and King, the other forwards, played a fine game, and McDougal and Houston turned in a stellar performance on the guard line. Robinson and Southern played well for the Dakin quintette and Stoenberg was a staunch defense until he was banished for personals. Tom Lewis handled the whistle.

The match between Swanson's Service and Malaspina Service was a rugged affair which ended with Malaspina on top 25-18. Late in the last period the score was tied at 17-all, but Ironside sank one for the Malaspina squad, and they took the lead and were never headed for the remaining few minutes. Denton and Lewis played a hard game for Swanson's, while Whyman, Williams and Brechinridge starred for the winners. Billy Kelly retired.

Outgoing Northfield Wideawakes 23-16, Mosquito senior girls dropped their match when they failed to overcome the 10-point handicap awarded to the district quintette. Feelings ran high throughout the game and several personal were handed out by Referee Honeymay. Margaret Niver and Vera Bohan were most effective for the Wideawakes with Richardson, Dagg and Malone playing well for the Mosquitos.

Harwood again took advantage of a 10-point handicap last evening to gain their second win over highly-rated teams when they beat Mosquito Intermediates 24-16. Mossell, at centre, capped most of the points for the winners, and his team mate, Douglas, was very effective on free shoes. Roberts and Robinson turned in good displays for the Mosquitos. "Footie" Lewis retired.

The plans are now being drawn up in Stockholm for the expedition, which will consist of five motor cars starting from Kwei-hwachong near the Mongolian frontier.

The scientists expect a trip full of hardships and difficulties but also of interesting experiences and scientific results. They will reach the Mongolian mountain plains during the coldest period when the temperature sometimes falls to 40 degrees centigrade below zero, and some of the districts are exceedingly hard to cross. In the dry deserts they will have to use camels carrying loads of ice, in order to secure their supply of water.

It is expected the future automobile road will yield good results. East Turkestan being one of the richest parts of China which in this way be opened up for cultivation. The expedition will be able to cover a good deal of ground, thanks to the motor cars, which enable the explorers to cross a stretch requiring 120 days for the ordinary camel caravans in about 15 days.

RENREW TO PLAY NANAIMO IN CITY; CROWD EXPECTED

Nanaimo's Line-up One of Best;
Inkster To Hold Down
Goalie's Job

KICKOFF 2:45.

Renrew Argyle, exponent of the long passing game, will be here tomorrow to play Nanaimo City in a Senior Soccer League match at the Central Sports Grounds. In their last meeting these two teams put up a fine struggle, and Daisy Waugh's beautiful conversation, late in the second half, gave the City the points.

Lawrie, the goalkeeper, his brother at fullback, and Christiano, Ross, Ashton, fleet-footed halves and forwards are well-known to Nanaimo fans. Most of the other members have also appeared here.

Nanaimo's team will not be picked until just before starting time but the probable lineup will be: Goal, Inkster; full backs, Boyd and English; half backs, McGregor, Peifers and Conti; forwards, White, Green, Jackson, or Krall, Waugh and Sandland.

Inkster's fine performances since he took over net-minding duties this season have raised him a steady position between the sticks. Boyd's play has improved remarkably since he dropped back to the fullback position and with a steady man beside him, Frank English has demonstrated that he is worthy of his place. Jimmy Knight's illness has caused some juggling with the halfback line, but Peifers' wonderful showing marks him as a wonderful pivot man. McGregor in one wing-half position, and Conti in the other, may solve the problem. Hills is also to be tried out as a middle defender.

At the start of the season Nanaimo's forward line with their strongest factor but it has failed to click in the last two games. White is showing steady improvement, and Green has always been constructive on an fast field. Jackson and Krall, the opportunity centre forwards, with Waugh and Sandland, two of the cleverest footballers in the province, round out the front line.

A staunch forward line on paper, they are expected to get into their stride tomorrow and with Renrew freely playing their usual game, a banner crowd is expected to witness the contest.

The kickoff is slated for 2:45 p.m.

PRESS FROWNS ON CANADA'S EFFORTS

British Papers Unsympathetic At Dominion's Endeavor To Stop Timber Dumping

London, Nov. 4.—While the Conservative Morning Post today urged no further delay in concluding a new Anglo-Russian trade agreement lest Britain be confronted with a new contract between Russia and Timber Distributors' Limited for sales of Russian timber, the Laborite Daily Herald and the Liberal Manchester Guardian took an unsympathetic view of Canada's efforts to banish dumping of Soviet timber here.

The Morning Post pointed out Anglo-Russian discussions on a new trade agreement had been going on for some months now and the Russian government and Timber Distributors Limited will probably soon open negotiations on a new contract for sending Russian Timber here. Unless the Anglo-Soviet agreement is operative before such a contract is signed, said the newspaper, the government would be confronted with a "fait accompli" which would be difficult to over-ride.

"Prime Minister Bennett," the Guardian said, "was intensely disappointed when the temporary embargo on Russian timber was withdrawn and lost no time in demanding its re-imposition under the "blackmail" clause of the Ottawa agreement—the clause on which he threatened to wreck the Ottawa Conference if Baldwin did not sign.

LADY FOR A DAY

From the Story by Damon Runyon

"I'm ruining her life. I'm disrupting her!"

"'Kest has a swell lay-out'."

"That's the crew that keeps me broke but beautiful!"

"Would you believe it—'s our little Annie!"

Shakespeare, the Duke's body-guard, offered a suggestion. He reminded the Duke that Regency Kent had a suite at the Royal Marlborough and the Duke's lady was away. He proposed transforming Apple Annie into Mrs. E. Worthington Marville for a week or so.

Driven by the feeling that he must bring back his good luck the Duke decided to change Annie into a society lady. He installed her in his friend's apartment and sent for "Miss" Martin to assist him in completing the transformation.

"Missouri" arrived accompanied by an army. When the massed, the hair dresser, the manicurist, the cosmetician, the courtesies, and the fan specialist had finished, Apple Annie had vanished to give place to Mrs. E. Worthington Marville. (Will She Be Able To Conquer The Countess Tomorrow's Paper.)

LOCAL TALENT HEARD AT CONCERT

Appreciative Audience Gathers at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Friday

An appreciative audience filled the basement of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last evening to be entertained by junior and senior pupils of the Nanaimo Dramatic Academy, and piano students of Miss Aida Malcord. All of them proved clever and talented exponents of the different departments of the art.

Assisting artists were Mrs. Marie Goult, who contributed two groups of vocal numbers which were warmly received, and Master Sidney Humphreys, who charmed the audience with his clever violin renditions.

Master Eddie McLennan, boy soprano, was heard in two vocal solos which appealed to his listeners, for their youthful unaffectedness.

During the evening little Miss Peggy Arnett presented Mrs. A. Graham, principal of the Nanaimo Dramatic Academy and Miss Aida Malcord with corage bouquets in appreciation of their efforts in organizing the concert in aid of the church.

Contributors to an excellent programme were: Lily Kirkham, Beverly Wilson, Hilga Kneen, Lily Saunders, Lois Cartwright, Gertrude Dean, Peggy Baker, Marie Carrigan, Andy Rogers, Joan Salter, Joyce Han, Barbara Mack, Helen and Olive Creagh, Olive Burnip, Marian Yates and Myrl Humphreys.

Miss Phyllis Rushton of Vancouver, gold medalist and artist pupil of Mrs. Graham, added considerably to the success of the evening.

Master Herbert Spencer and Bobbie MacDonald also merited much applause. Miss Aida Malcord and Miss Minnie Humphreys acted as accompanists.

U.S. FLEET WILL QUIT PACIFIC FOR ATLANTIC OCEAN

Spokesmen Declares That Report Reassures Extremists of Nippon

PRESIDENT ACTS
 Naval Domination Policy In Pacific Feared By the Japanese.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The U. S. fleet stationed in the Pacific in recent years, will cruise to the Atlantic in 1934, under tentative plans announced yesterday. The president has authorized the cruise, which is designed according to Secretary of the Navy Swanson, to enable sailors to become acquainted with both coasts.

Tokyo, Nov. 4.—Reports that the U. S. fleet would cruise to Atlantic waters were welcomed here today by a government spokesman. "Removal of the American fleet, or a major part of it from Pacific waters will reassure extremists in Japan and show that Washington does not intend a policy of naval domination in the Pacific," the spokesman said.

He held that Japan has considered concentration of the entire fleet in the Pacific as abnormal and indicative of American suspicion of Japan's program in Asia.

WOMEN FARE BADLY; ONLY ONE ELECTED

Ten Sought Honors In B. C. Election; Voters Spurn All But One

Vancouver, Nov. 4.—Ten women sought office in British Columbia's election campaign but only one mustered sufficient votes to enter the 18th legislature of the coast province.

Mrs. Paul Smith, Liberal candidate in Vancouver-Burrard, had earned the right to follow in the illustrious footsteps of Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, British Columbia's first and only woman legislator. "Mary Ellen, as she was popularly known, died only a few months ago.

Chairman of Vancouver Board of School Trustees, Mrs. Paul Smith's campaign fell close to 9,000 votes, second highest in the two-seat riding. G. G. McGeer, K.C., also running on the Liberal ticket, headed the poll.

In the same riding Miss M. Osterhout, upholding the C.C.F. colors, obtained more than 6,000 votes. Also a candidate on the C. C. F. platform was Mrs. R. P. Steeves, Vancouver-Point Grey. She polled about 7,000 ballots, insufficient however, to ensure her election in the three-seat constituency.

Another Independent Non-Partisan candidate, Mrs. Nora Leary, did not show up in Vancouver-East, though she drew more than 1,000 votes.
