HURRICANE LASHES TEXAN COAST; SHIPS HURRY TO SHELTER

Wind Reaching Velocity of One Hundred Miles An Hour Drives Craft Ashore
FLORIDA SWEPT

Negro Loses Life When He Refuses To Leave Home; Million Dollars Damage

Houston, Tex., Sept. 5.—Ripping through the lower Rio Grande valley a tropical hurricane of great intensity isolated Brownsville at the southernmost point of Texas early today, and lashed the golf coast for hundreds of miles.

Wind accounts of the terrific winds came from a telephone call at Harlingen who sought frantically to give the old-timer details until all her lines went out.

'All the lines to Brownsville went out at once,' she said, as the building in which she worked trembled before the blasts and wire breaks were so frequent much of her story had to be repeated.

'It's storming terribly here now, and I don't know what has happened to them down at Brownsville.'

Brownsville is 30 miles east of Harlingen, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, and is a Missouri Pacific railroad operator at Harlingen, in a conversation with his Houston office, said:

'The wind is blowing about 80 miles an hour now. Shingles and boards are flying through the air and the wind is blowing so hard I can't tell much about what is happening outside the station.'

Reports from other surrounding towns told how two-story buildings were shaken to their foundations, frame buildings crumpled and trees were uprooted. Reports of winds reaching almost 100 miles an hour pressed considerable damage to the city.

The first tangible effects of the storm appeared at Corpus Christi, some 150 miles up the coast line. Early in the night strong winds drove several ships ashore, battered two against a long pier wrecking it, and created immense waves which vent water into the city's streets along the bay.

Beville leading from Corpus Christi to Breville and San Angelo were struck by families fleeing ahead of the big blow, carrying dogs, cats, parrots canaries and household goods.

The more early frightened at Beville, far inland, sought safety to the north.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 5.—Trail of raged hoes, businesses and citrus groves today marked the wake of a tropical storm that struck Florida on the east, swept through the southern portion and blew into the Gulf of Mexico north of Tampa. Damage was estimated about $1,000,000.

Meagre reports disclosed loss of but one life, a negro who refused to leave his home near Palm Beach as the storm approached and was killed when it collapsed.

Havana, Sept. 5.—A delegation arriving here today from Martin in the province reported 21 persons drowned and 150 more injured in St. Friday's hurricane. They urged aid be sent immediately since 1000 persons had been made homeless and property damage would aggregate $1,000,000.

Gar Wood Holds Harmsworth Cup By Second Victory

Local Chinese Is Arrested On Dope Charge By Police

Ab Fu, known also as Ah Fong, Nanaimo Chinese, was arrested Saturday night in Chinatown by Sergeant James and Constable R. Hayward, and found to be in possession of 45 'rocks' of opium. He was remanded by Magistrate C. H. Begor-Potts for eight days in police court this morning.

Marine City, Mich., Sept. 5.—Silver-haired Gar Wood yesterday had turned back the challenge Hubert, Scott-Paine made for the Harmsworth trophy, the world's premier motorboat prize, but not before the unassuming Briton had turned Monday's deciding race into the closest one of recent times.

When the Detroit veteran finished his four-engine craft across the finish line before a Labor Day throng of 150,000 to mark up his second triumph victory in the best-two-of-three event, Scott-Paine was only 2.35 seconds in his wake.

It had been a close fight all the way over the 35 nautical mile course on the St. Clair river, with the Briton piloting his small craft expertly and recklessly to stay within halting distance of the bulky defender.

No records were broken, but the times of both crafts were far better than those of the first heat Saturday. The fastest lap of Miss America, 38:49.93, 9.39 miles an hour, that of Miss Britain III, 42:21.15 miles.

The defender's elapsed time for the seven circuits of a course that was somewhat choppy was 27:48.94; Scott-Paine's was 28:11.25.

London, Sept. 5.—The Trade's Union Congress at its annual meeting today adopted an emergency resolution calling for conclusion of a commercial treaty between Great Britain and Soviet Russia.

The statement also asked for revision of adequate credits for Anglo-Russian trade, thus enabling the Soviet government to place greatly increased orders in Great Britain.

During a discussion, G. M. Hanford, delegate from London, declared if Great Britain gave the same facilities to the Russians that Germany had, this country could capture a large slice of the German trade with Russia.

The British labor movement, he added, has called for the boycott of German goods and this capture of Germany's Russian trade would be a very effective way to hit at Hitlerism.

Mr. Congress cheered reports of progress of the American recovery program as presented before by G. Burke of the American Federation of Labor.

William Cairne secretary of the Congress noted adoption of an emergency resolution protesting against the 'continued failure of the British Government to take effective measures against unemployment, to support a proposal for a 40-hour week, and the construction of useful public works, and to produce a positive program for promoting the recovery of industry and trade.'

Criminologist Is Assisting Police In Island Murder Mystery

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—A further analysis of the stomach contents from the body of Miss Maund Mildred Lilley, pretty ex-aviation girl of Victoria, pretty ex-aviation girl of Victoria, tried to help to solve the puzzle of her mysterious death near Crofton, Vancouver Island, is being made by Inspector J. F. C. B. Vance, scientific criminologist and head of the police bureau of science.

The exhibit was brought to the police office by a special provincial police constable from Victoria Monday morning. It is expected that the examination, which is to be supervised by Inspector Vance, will greatly help to establish the cause of death.

An early hour this morning no definite report was available from the criminologist, who was at work in the laboratory at police headquarters.

The trial will be ready for the coroner's jury, which will convene at six o'clock tonight at Duncan.

RETIREMENTS UP TO PEOPLE, SAYS TOLMIE

A Matter For the People, Not For the Press, Premier Says Today

'FALSEHOODS'

Statement That He Would Offer Resignation Tomorrow Is Dubbed 'False'

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 5.—My resignation from the premiership is a question for the electors, not the press,' declared Premier Tolmie today, when he was questioned concerning current reports of his political intentions.

'The report that I am about to accept a post in the Federal Department of Agriculture is just another one of those falsehoods I have been compelled to deny recently,' he added.

'At no time during my conversations with the Hon. Robert Weir, Federal Minister of Agriculture, did we discuss politics,' said the Premier, commenting on the report that Mr. Weir's presence in Victoria last night was a guest at the Tolmie home had significance with regard to Dr. Tolmie's future plans.

'The statement to effect I had accepted a post in the Federal Department of Agriculture, was called by me "I repeat the truth and that I was at that meeting, to announce my retirement is absolutely without foundation," Premier Tolmie said.

'No meeting has been called by me. I repeat the truth and that I was at that meeting, to announce my retirement is absolutely without foundation,' Premier Tolmie said.

EARTHQUAKE AND FLOOD IN ORIENT

China Suffers Worst Temblor In Century; Typhoon Hits Southern Korea

Shanghai, Sept. 5.—Delayed Chinese reports today described an earthquake in Zhejiang Province, western China, Aug. 25 as the worst the area has suffered in a century.

The dispatches said a tremendous loss of life and property had resulted in the northwest part of the province along the Min River, where the shock was reported the strongest.

Earlier reports from Chungking, capital of the province, said 100 persons were killed.

Five counties were virtually laid waste, according to the reports, while an additional area comprising 70 square miles was ruined, resulting in a great loss of life and property.

Tokyo, Sept. 5.—Rengo (Japanese) News Agency reported from Seoul, the capital of Korea, today that 14 persons were killed, 15 were known to be missing, and hundreds of houses were partially flooded when a typhoon swept southern Korea.

The storm also caused 40,000 persons damage in western Japan, but no casualties were reported.

Records Broken At Track Meet

NANAIMO GIRL BEATS CANADIAN CHAMPION

Margaret Thompson Wins From Miss M. Bell in High Jump Event; Four Records Go; Three Are Tied

Four records were broken, and three were tied at the fourth annual track and field meet held at the Central Sports Ground, under the auspices of Post No. 3, Native Sons of B. C., here yesterday.

Lowering skies and intermittent showers of driving rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the crowd of over a hundred. Eighteen hundred people witnessed the meet.

Flame-haired Margaret Thompson, wearing the colors of the Nanaimo Mosquito Club, sprang a surprise victory when she beat the tall Canadian champion, Margaret Bell, in the high jump. The two girls battled until the bar was at two feet, eleven and one-half inches. Miss Thompson cleared the bar on her third attempt.

Miss Bell, trying valiantly, and using the scissors style, made a desperate effort on her last try, but was unsuccessful.

Richard Duncan, post lady's midget, repeated his best of last year, when he had a lead of one and a half miles of the way on the 17-mile grind. Bell of Victoria, was forced from the race at Waterloo, half way to the goal when his rear tire blew out. Tesni, Nanaimo entrant, found the post hole and dropped out. The cyclists were bunched as they entered the grounds, and Duncan won by a scant yard.

Miss Parsons, classy Vancouver cyclist, cleared 11 feet 6 inches in an exhibition jump. The event was won by J. Hawthorthwaite wearing the colors of the local Mosquito Club, at 10 feet 7 inches. Fillingster, at 10 feet 7 inches, clearing 8 feet 25 inches. The city man also won the hop, skip and jump, leading by 10 feet 10 inches.

Records were also set in the men's quarter mile, when Joe Addison led a classy field to the top, winning in the last time of 53 seconds. He beat his team-mate Ray Kerrey by three yards.

The feature event of the day that brought the big crowd to its feet was the quarter-mile relay between two teams of sprint stars. Miss Thompson, T. Williams, Miss L. Palmer and Harold Wright raced Bob Osborne, Olive Gordon, Howard McPhee and Mary Fritzel.

Wright sought Miss Fritzel at the tape. The judges announced it a dead heat. The time was 50-2-5 seconds.

Margaret Thompson met strong opposition in Olive Gordon and Yvonne Dingley, two young Duncan contestants, but managed to lead them off at the tape in the first sprint event. The local girl also won the City of Nanaimo 100 yard race.

Stolzberg, junior Olympic champion miler, gave Nanaimo a win in the first 1/2 mile and held it throughout the race to defeat the guest runner, Herb Barclay, of Vancouver. Stolzberg was forced to drop out in the 800, when he twisted his ankle on the turn in the initial part of the race.

Charles Cunningham, Victoria, won the half mile for the fourth successive time at the Native Sons' Meet, when he led the field yesterday.

Addison ran a great race to capture the 100 yard open sprint, but was just beaten out at the tape by Harold Wright, Olympic runner, who gave an exhibition. The Mosquito Club were forced to draw from Victoria ranks to form their relay team but lost by a good margin.

Guest athletes performed exceptionally well. Bob Osborne showed his heels to the pack in the 220 and 100. Wright ran the 100 yard open in 1:25 seconds and McPhee also displayed wonderful form. Bill Duncan gave an exhibition of dizziness and jayvee in throwing and Tom Williams scampered ahead of the runners in the 220.

Miss Parsons, the 17-year-old track sensation of the Mainland, broke the island meet records in the high jump, pole vault and shot put. In the latter event he made a throw of 43 feet 2 1/2 inches. Agnes, his team mate, also made a fine throw of 40 feet 10 1/2 inches.

VICTORIA ASKS SEPARATE ASS'N.

Would Play Lone Hand in Hoop Game This Season; Amateur Cards

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—Defeated in a similar move after considerable squabbling last season, Victoria has given notice of motion requesting a separate association for their particular district, Secretary Walter Hardwick, of the British Columbia Basketball Association, announces. Owing to disagreement with the Upper Island Victoria officials made a similar request last winter, but the provincial body decided that play-offs and other matters would be more workable if the Island camps were joined, rather than split.

This and a number of other interesting amendments will be up for decision at the annual meeting of the British Columbia Basketball Association in the boardroom of the Province Building, Saturday, Sept. 16.

Interpreted as an attempt to halt poaching of players an amendment which calls for managers to give two weeks' notice of rival teams prior to approaching of their men will be proposed.

Another amendment would literally make it unnecessary for players to carry amateur cards throughout the season. According to this proposal, it will be necessary for players to produce amateur cards only if they are to take part in play-off games.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENCE

'Man' was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 3.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: 'Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture' (Psalms 100:3).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures' by Mary Baker Eddy: 'God fashions all things, after His own likeness * * * Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth' (p. 516).

Galahads Lose To Vancouver In Game For Softball Title

Russ Inkster's Galahads failed to fit the junior softball championship of the province in Vancouver Saturday when they were defeated 14-8 by the Vancouver Trojans, but atoned somewhat for their defeat by routing the champions 7-1 in an exhibition game Sunday.

Darkness fell early in the trophy game, but the umpire kept the game going. The knights gave an early lead to their opponents, but after the first three frames had even until the end of the eighth. Rickerby failed to display the form which he had shown in Nanaimo, and was knocked from the box in the third. Rogers, who took his place, played like a veteran Ogden's was the kingpin of the Galahad attack in this match and stole home twice on a relay back to the pitcher.

Granton hurried three innings for the Trojans before giving way to Woods. Park's hit homers for the winners. Kilby, Aitken and Higgins each secured two maidens.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Galahads—3 10102—8 8 6 Trojans—2521024—10 4 0 Rickerby, Rogers and Aitken; Granton, Woods and Quinn.

The Galahads made several changes in their lineup for the exhibition game which was played on Sunday at Central Park Burnaby. A three-hit game by Rogers gave them this title by a 7-1 margin. Higgins had a fine batting average for the match with a triple and two

Lad Killed On Level Crossing At Chilliwack

Chilliwack, Sept. 5.—A young man, Sidney Rady, driver of an automobile, was struck by the locomotive of No. 1 Canadian National Railway train, westbound, at seven o'clock yesterday morning. The impact took place at a grade crossing three miles east of this city. Rady died five minutes later from his injuries.

Rady is stated to have borrowed the car of Albert Dible, neighboring farmer who lives at the crossing. The train crew saw the farm gate onto the track opened for the car to approach the crossing as they neared the spot.

Dible shouted a warning to the lad, but Rady appeared to have thought he could make it in time, but was caught by the locomotive in charge of Jack Meachan. The vehicle was carried 100 feet along the track.

A SOLILOQUY

How slender is the thread of life On which we hang, amid all its strife. The unfeeling death snags the web. Which is so brittle—like a thread.

Help us, oh God, to understand, Where, and how, and when we stand. Amidst all life's uncertainties, To realize the certainties.

'Tis true we close our eyes to facts And that is why we prove so lax. That when we are so hardly taxed Our rigidity melts, much like wax.

But when we stand on solid rock We are safer than those who mock. For when in storm, and battles' shock, Jesus the Saviour is our rock.

And when the thread of life shall break With all our prospects then at stake— What shall we leave behind to tell Of Truth, and Love that doth cease?

PUBLIC JUDGE ON HOLDOUT OF FORD

First Jury To Pass On Magnate's Absence From Membership of the N.R.A.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Public opinion today apparently was the first chosen by President Roosevelt's recovery administration for deciding the case of Henry Ford's conspicuous absence from N.R.A. membership.

As the rest of United States automobile industry began its first official workday under the Blue Eagle, N.R.A. leaders evidenced every intention for the present, at least—of letting nature take its course with Ford—the industrial campaign's first major holdout.

Other problems pressed equally for solution after Labor Day's week-end of speech-making. Hugh S. Johnson, N.R.A. chief, gave his attention to the difficult soft coal negotiations, seeking a final agreement for President Roosevelt's signature.

Of more underlying significance, however, was Johnson's immediate task of perfecting his enforcement organization and of measuring the extent of new purchasing power created by the government's manifesto recovery efforts.

Big Day, Mich. Sept. 5.—The girls of the forest, but no blue eagles, whirl around the 16-room "cabin" where Henry Ford, continuing his north woods vacation today, far removed from the outside world and its discussion of his status as a "holdout" from the National Automobile Code, now in effect.

LETTERS UNFOLD DRAMA OF QUEEN AND GLADSTONE

Well Meaning Premier Was Finally One of Victoria's Pet Aversions

HER DISLIKES

London, Aug. 20.—The Queen and Mr. Gladstone, 1845-1879. Letters edited with a commentary by Philip Guellada, receives extended notice in the press. One reviewer says: "It is an astonishing drama that the Queen to do her duty as a Queen and the middle-aged Queen Victoria and the middle-aged Gladstone. The most human and engrossing part of the correspondence is that in which Gladstone tries to persuade the Queen to do her duty as a Queen and she with a superabundance of underlined words explains that she is too broken and ill to do her duty as a Queen."

It was probably because of Gladstone's well meaning efforts that he ceased to be one of the Queen's most cherished advisers and became her pet aversion. She obviously never felt the same towards him again after his dogged attempts to coax her out of her retirement to open the newly-built Blackfriars Bridge.

Her withdrawal from the public gaze after the death of Prince Albert was coming with which she could not sympathize. Her letter about her dead husband, written to Gladstone in 1862, is the sincerest utterance of a broken heart:

"The Queen struggles and works and will devote herself to do what her precious husband wished—and desired and thus to do her duty to the last hour of her life—but her faithful servant and kind friends must not deceive themselves by thinking that her efforts will carry her on—for the constant longing—and pining, the void and suffering do never leave her day or night—accompanied by the great amount of work and responsibility which weighs upon her is telling very visibly upon her health and strength; she gets much weaker, her health worse and her nerves terribly shattered."

"The Queen is much surprised at being again teased and tormented about this bridge having three weeks ago—nearly—been asked by Mr. Gladstone that as the queen could not open the bridge and viaduct the fate of the whole thing being much too great, and a day commencing in the heat being impossible could the queen on returning from Balmoral, in the autumn drive to the bridge? She replied that she could not do so but that if she could she would, but that it could not be before the 6th of November, and certainly not in October. And quite a short ceremony without any luncheon anywhere."

"Again when she was asked to open Parliament, she wrote: "After much repeated severe suffering which has weakened and shaken her very much and which obliges her to take the very greatest care when she goes out like sitting backwards when she drives and covering her face and hands with endless wraps—besides avoiding excitement and fatigue—it would be madness to expose herself to the fatigue of a journey up in this severe weather and to the great agitation and excitement of going to open Parliament and above all to the totally unmanageable heat of cold drafts and heat!"

"She was averse to the idea of women entering the medical profession (and in this Gladstone agreed). "The Queen is glad that the government will support Mr. Bouverie's motion—but she feels the danger as regards the subject she attended to; he is so very serious that she is determined for the salvation of the young women of this country—and their rescue from immortality to do every thing she can to put a check to it. She wishes Mr. Gladstone would send for and see Sir William Jenner who can tell him what an awful idea this is—allowing young girls and young men to enter the dissecting room together!"

WEDNESDAY XI. OF Victoria Easily Beat Vancouver

Victoria, Sept. 5.—In a match featured by the performance of two local youngsters, the Victoria Wednesday League cricket team easily defeated Vancouver Wednesday at Beacon Hill park yesterday.

Philip Nation and Robert Moffatt were the lads who put on the sterling performance and between them put on enough runs to defeat the Vancouver side. Nation scored 67 and Moffatt 32 in last wicket stand for 99 out of a total of 219 runs for the team. The Mainlanders knocked up only 98 all out.

In addition, Moffatt's bowling proved deadly to the visitors and he took six wickets for 24.
